Silka Indian Restaurant, Canterbury Road, Charing, Ashford, Kent, TN27 0EX

Purpose of the Report

1. The report advises Members of a licence application under the provisions of the Licensing Act 2003.

Application type:    Application from an existing licence holder to grant the variation to the premises licence.

Applicant:            Mr Rashid

Premises:            Silka Indian Restaurant, Canterbury Road, Charing, Ashford, Kent, TN27 0EX

Issue to be Decided

2. Members are asked to determine whether to grant the variation to the premises licence.

Background

The Licensing Objectives

3. The licensing authority must carry out its functions under the Licensing Act 2003 with a view to promoting the licensing objectives namely, the prevention of crime and disorder, public safety, the prevention of public nuisance and the protection of children from harm (LA 2003, s4 (1)).

Application details

4. The application is made by an existing licence holder to vary a premises licence.
5. See Appendix A for the Application to vary a Premises Licence, along with plans (a map showing the location of the premises is provided at Appendix E). The application has been made in the proper manner.
6. In respect to the variation, representations have been received hence the determination coming before Members.

Additional steps

7. The applicant states within section P of the application form the additional steps they intend to take in order to promote the four licensing objectives if the proposed variation is granted.
8. The conditions put forward by the Licensing Manager as taken from section P of the application form are as given below.

- The Licence Holder and appropriate staff will regularly monitor noise levels outside the premises to ensure they are not excessive or likely to disturb neighbours.
  - The Licence Holder shall ensure that the windows and doors (except for ingress and egress) are kept closed in order to prevent the transmission of noise.
9. It is stressed that while a licensing authority has no discretion to add or modify a condition where there is no relevant representation, it may not issue a licence with conditions that are illegal.

Representations from Responsible Authorities

10. No representations were received from the responsible authorities.

Representations from Interested Parties

11. 12 parties have made representations. A summary of these representations is provided in Appendix C. Copies of the letters are contained in Appendix B.
12. All of the representations are parties living in the area.
13. The representations have a number of common themes in terms of the licensing objectives and they can be summarised as follows:
- Loud music coming from the premises in the past, when the premises was under previous ownership, which has caused a public nuisance. There is a belief that authorisation for live music and later hours could see a repeat of these problems.
  - The prevention of public nuisance in relation to customers leaving the premises shouting, the slamming of car doors and revving of engines, some of which may relate to the premises under previous ownership.
  - Quality of life and the quietness of the surrounding area.
14. Under section 35(5) of the Licensing Act 2003, representations are relevant if they are about the likely effect of the grant of the licence on the promotion of the licensing objectives and (subsection 6) are made by an interested party or responsible authority within the prescribed period, are not withdrawn or, in the opinion of the licensing authority, frivolous or vexatious.
15. The prescribed period for the receipt of such representations in this case is, by Regulation 22(b) of the Licensing Act 2003 (Premises licences and club premises certificates) Regulations 2005 "during a period of 28 consecutive days starting on the day after the day on which the application to which it relates was given to the authority by the applicant". In this case the application was given to the authority on 6th November 2007 and the last date for receipt of relevant representations was therefore 5th December 2007.

Relevant premises history

16. The premises is approximately 110 seater Indian restaurant on the Canterbury Road, on Charing Hill. The restaurant is a detached building set in approximately one acre of land with parking facilities for approximately 60 vehicles. The building has been a restaurant for approximately 18 months and the current licence holder has owned the premises for the last 7 months.
17. The premises is currently licensed for the sale of alcohol from midday until 23:30 seven days a week. It is also licensed for recorded music from midday until midnight, and for late night refreshment until midnight seven days a week. All these activities are authorised for inside the premises only.

19. The application requests an extension to sell alcohol until 01:00 on New Year's Eve and to remain open a further 30 minutes.
20. The application proposes to permit live music and recorded music and the performance of dance inside and outside the premises from midday until 23:30 Sunday to Thursday, until 00:30 Friday and Saturday and 01:00 on New Year's Eve. These licensable activities will cease at 21:00 if held outside.
21. The application requests the provision of facilities for dancing inside the premises until 23:00 Sunday to Thursday and until 00:30 on Friday and Saturday. Members may wish to seek clarification from the applicant on these times and any proposed times on New Year's Eve.
22. The provision to extend late night refreshment on the premises is also requested until 01:00 on Friday and Saturday and until 01:30 New Year's Eve.
23. Our records show that there one complaint have been received regarding amplified music in the last two years.
24. Our records show that two Temporary Event Notices were given in 2007 for regulated entertainment and no noise complaints were received.
25. The Licensing Section arranged and facilitated a meeting with the applicant and interested parties who had made representations. The meeting was held on Thursday 6th December at the Silka Restaurant and all interested were either present or represented.
26. After a lengthy debate the following was agreed by the applicant and the interested parties listed below:
  - Live and recorded music to cease at 00:00 Friday and Saturday.
  - All licensable activities to be restricted to inside the premises only.

In addition the following conditions were agreed:

- Noise or vibration from the premises will be maintained at a level the will not be audible at the façade of any neighbouring noise sensitive premises.
- The playing of amplified music in outside areas of the premises is not permitted.

Options

General

28. Members attention is drawn to the following matters:
- All applications are to be considered on their merits as well as against the relevant policy and statutory framework.
  - Due regard should be given to the provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998, Race Relations Act 1976 as amended by the Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000 and Section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 and, so far as possible, reflect local crime prevention strategies.
  - The operating schedule forms part of the completed application form for a premises licence. The operating schedule should include information, which is necessary to enable any responsible authority or interested party to assess whether the steps to be taken to promote licensing objectives are satisfactory.
  - The licensing authority may not impose any conditions unless its discretion has been engaged following the making of relevant representations and it has been satisfied at a hearing of the necessity to impose conditions due to the representations raised. It may then only impose such conditions as are necessary to promote the licensing objectives arising out of the consideration of the representations. However, in order to minimise problems and the necessity for hearings, it would be sensible for applicants to consult with responsible authorities when schedules are being prepared. This would allow for proper liaison before representations prove necessary.

- Where problems have occurred, the application for the new licence or certificate will afford an opportunity for responsible authorities and interested parties to raise the issue through representations and for conditions addressing any nuisance previously caused to be attached following a hearing where necessary. The views of local residents will be important in establishing the extent of any history of problems.
- The conditions put forward within this report are suggested on the basis of:
  - information contained within the application form;
  - interested parties representations and
  - on those measures currently in existence.
- The 2003 Act requires licensing authorities following receipt of relevant representations to make judgements about what constitutes public nuisance and what is necessary, in terms of conditions attached to specific premises licences to prevent it. It is therefore important that in considering the promotion of this licensing objective, licensing authorities focus on impacts of the licensable activities at the specific premises on persons living and working (including doing business) in the vicinity that are disproportionate and unreasonable. The issues will mainly concern noise nuisance, light pollution, noxious smells and litter.
- Public nuisance is not narrowly defined in the 2003 Act and retains its broad common law meaning for the Act's purposes. The prevention of public nuisance could therefore include low-level nuisance perhaps affecting a few people living locally as well as major disturbance affecting the whole community. It may also include in appropriate circumstances the reduction of the living and working amenity and environment of interested parties (as defined in the 2003 Act) in the vicinity of licensed premises.
- Where applications have given rise to representations, any necessary and appropriate conditions should normally focus on the most sensitive periods. For example, music noise from premises usually occurs from mid-evening until either late evening or early morning when residents in adjacent properties may be attempting to go to sleep or are sleeping. In certain circumstances, conditions relating to noise may also prove necessary to address any disturbance anticipated as customers enter and leave the premises and therefore, in the immediate vicinity of the premises.
- In the context of preventing public nuisance, it is essential that conditions are focused on measures within the direct control of the licence holder. Conditions relating to public nuisance caused by the anti-social behaviour of customers once they are beyond the control of the licence holder, or premises management cannot be justified and will not serve to promote the licensing objectives in relation to the licensing activities carried on at the premises. Beyond the vicinity of the premises, these are matters for personal responsibility of individuals under the law. An individual who engages in anti-social behaviour is accountable in his own right. However, it would be perfectly reasonable for a licensing authority to impose a condition it considered necessary following relevant representations from an interested party that requires the licence holder to place signs at the exits from the building encouraging patrons to be quiet until they leave the area and to respect the rights of people living near-by to a peaceful night. After a licence has been granted or varied, a complaint relating to a general (crime and disorder) situation in a town centre should generally not be regarded as a relevant representation unless it can be positively tied or linked by a causal connection to particular premises, which would allow for a proper review of the licence or certificate.

- The Guidance states “the conditions that are necessary for the promotion of the licensing objectives should emerge initially from a prospective licensee’s risk assessment which should be undertaken by applicants or clubs before making their application for a premises licence or club premises certificate. This would be translated into the steps recorded in the operating schedule or club operating schedule that it is proposed to take to promote the licensing objectives.”
- It is perfectly possible that in certain cases, because the test is one of necessity, where there are other legislative provisions, which are relevant and must be observed by the applicant, no additional conditions at all are needed to promote the licensing objectives.

Decision options

Legal options open to members

29. Members may grant the licence with no modifications to the conditions to the licence, modify the conditions of the licence or reject the whole or part of the application.

Consultation

30. All relevant parties have followed the consultation procedures required under the Licensing Act 2003.

Implications Assessment

31. The decision should be made with regard to the Secretary of State's Guidance and the Council's Statement of Licensing Policy under the Licensing Act 2003. Where the decision departs from either the Guidance or the policy clear and cogent reasons must be given. Members should be aware that if such a departure is made the risk of appeal / challenge is increased.

Human Rights

32. While all Convention Rights must be considered, those which are of particular relevance to the application are:
  - Article 8 - Right to respect for private and family life
  - Article 1 of the First Protocol - Protection of Property

- Article 10 – Freedom of Expression

The full text of each Article is given in the attached Appendix D.

Handling

33. The timings for handling the application are set out in the Licensing Act 2003 and related regulations.
